

OCTOBER PRAYERS

Brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable – if anything is excellent or praiseworthy – think about such things. Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me – put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you. Philippians 4 v 4-9

Prayers of thanks

The life of Betty Fleming, A long time member of our church family, who loved her Lord and whose smile would light up the room. She will be very much missed by Rosalind, family and her many friends

The glorious weather which has helped people cope during difficult times

The near completion of the alterations to our church

The continuing work of “the Hub” for those in need

The regular input of “keeping in touch”, prayers, services and information

Prayers concerns

The on going situation with the pandemic, as more people become isolated

All those living alone who are very vulnerable

All who are concerned for their jobs as the furlough scheme comes to an end

School & Street pastors who are concerned about restarting needed patrols

All emergency service personnel, especially family & colleagues of the police officer killed in the line of duty

Barbara Logsdon as she prepares to move; Rosalind and family; Family & friends of Mary Hooker; Chris & Bob; Mavis Prater; Fred, chairman of the epilepsy group, unwell in hospital; Melva & family, Jack & Sylvia Shepherd, Vi & Arthur Porter; Vic & Anne & son Christopher; Mitchell & family; Mike & Pauline; Alan & Pauline; Dorothy; Jean Rayner; Val & Fred; Sarah’s mum Joyce; Anne’s cousin Lynn

For I have chosen you...Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you. I will uphold you with my victorious right hand Isaiah 41 v 9-10
