

NKMC WORSHIP FROM HOME
27/12/20

God's love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him.

God gives you
The heart of Mary
That you may ponder this story and treasure it in your heart
The joy of the Magi
That you may open yourself to God and give God the gift of your life
The wonder of the shepherds
That you may know that heaven and earth are filled with God's glory and peace

Hymn 224 (STF) As with gladness men of old

<https://youtu.be/UB8rKNrlpDQ>

Prayer led by Stuart McGregor

Matthew 2: 1-12 read by Stuart McGregor

Hymn 205 (STF) It came upon the midnight clear

<https://youtu.be/SiG2tPdWVwU>

Sermon

Hymn 222 (STF) Who would think that what was needed

<https://youtu.be/MwCyLamhFrk>

Prayer

Eternal God

In Jesus
You, the creator of all things
Enter into your creation.
You, the timeless one
Become subject to the world of time.
You, who fill all things
Become flesh and make your home among us.

In Jesus
You share human experience to the full
You face
The threats to survival

The horrors that destroy
The suffering that crucifies

Herod was determined to destroy Jesus
We are aware of the threats that endanger us
Especially the many consequences of living with the Coronavirus

We pray
For those who have died;
For those who are suffering from the infection now and those suffering from the consequences of having been infected.
For those who have been bereaved;
For those who are lonely because of the lockdown;
For those who made plans and preparations to see those they love over Christmas, then had to scrap the plans and undo the preparations;
For those who have lost homes, jobs, livelihoods;
For those who have no idea where they will find the money to get through the next few weeks, days, hours;
For those who are under pressure, working long hours at full capacity
In the health service
In care homes
In schools
We pray for those suffering the consequences of the Coronavirus

Jesus became a refugee
We pray for refugees
For those who take dangerous journeys
On packed boats
With inadequate supplies of food and water
And no real sense of how to navigate to their destination
Or those who travel in hot, airless containers
Where they try to send final texts to their loved ones
Knowing that they will not see them again
We pray for refugees

Mary gave birth to her firstborn child, wrapped him in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger

We pray for those who have just become parents
Fill their hearts with love for their children
Give them all the strength they need
And may they find joy, delight and wonder
In their children
And in your amazing gift of new life

Jesus grew, became strong and was filled with wisdom
Your favour rested upon him.
We pray for our children

May they too, become strong and wise
May they know that your favour and blessing rests upon them
That they are enfolded in your generous love
And in that assurance may they find freedom and life.

And a few moments of quiet
We bring our own prayers to God

We remember in your presence those who have died
May we with them
At our journey's end
Be brought to where we offer the gift of our lives to you
And may we find
That you accept and are open to us
That you make space for us in your dwelling place
And may we be overwhelmed with a joy that is made complete in you

We gather our prayers together in the words of the Lord's Prayer

Our Father
Who art in heaven
Hallowed be thy name
Thy kingdom come
Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven
Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive those who trespass against us
And lead us not into temptation
But deliver us from evil
For thine is the kingdom
The power and the glory for ever and ever
Amen.

When the angel announced the birth of your son
They said it was good news of great joy.
When the Magi arrived at the home of Jesus
They were overwhelmed with joy.
Later, when he got near to the cross
Jesus told his friends
That his desire for them
Was that their joy be complete.

This time is a time of joy
    A time of glad tidings
At this time
Our hearts are warmed
Because your son is Emmanuel
God with us

In him heaven has touched the earth
And the earth can never be quite the same again
In him you are revealed
Because he is close to your heart and has made you known
In him we are forgiven

You have set us free
From guilt

You have set us free
From that within
Which covers up your presence
And stops us from seeing
That you are deep inside
Working for our peace and joy

You have set us free
From that within
Which prevents us from co-operating with your inner presence
And holds us back from flourishing and being most fully ourselves

You have given us assurance
That through Jesus
We have peace with you
We are enfolded in your generous love
Drawn into your empowering embrace
And given the confidence
That a place has been prepared for us
With the whole creation
In your heavenly home

This time is a time of inexpressible joy
A time of glad tidings.

We bring our prayers
In the name of the child born in Bethlehem
The wonderful counsellor
The mighty God
The everlasting father
The prince of peace

AMEN.

Hymn 330 (STF) Joy to the world, the Lord is come

<https://youtu.be/6oOwa0CWVQ>

Blessing

God comes to you now
Humbly asking for room
In the stable of your heart
In the manger of your soul
That the word may become flesh once again
In you
As you give birth to the life of God
And bear Jesus and his love to the world

The blessing of God, Creator, Saviour and Spirit be with you now and always

AMEN